

Do you want to deepen your understanding of music?

Have you ever wondered how music works? Do you need help with your music theory studies? Do you want to know why your favourite makes you feel the way it does? Are you preparing for a university entrance exam in music?

Consider music theory lessons!

Benefits of music theory studies include:

- Gain insight into and mastery over the structure of music
- Memorize music more quickly
- Increase skill in reading music, including sight-reading
- Deepen appreciation for musical writing

I would love to help you achieve your musical goals.

Rates & Medium

Lessons available over Zoom only.

Rate: $15/half-hour lesson.

*If financial barriers exist, please contact me; I would be happy to assist.

About the Instructor

Riley Dyck (MCI '14) is a passionate musician who loves engaging in music in a variety of ways, including playing piano, composing and arranging, listening, and singing. He earned a Bachelor's Degree in Piano Performance from Canadian Mennonite University studying under Shirley Elias, and a Post-Baccalaureate Diploma in Piano Performance from the University of Manitoba under Dr. Darryl Friesen. He has also had formal training in voice and composition. During his studies at CMU, Riley placed 2nd in the Verna Mae Janzen Music Competition. Further, he has thoroughly enjoyed collaborating with many types of musicians and groups, from vocalists and choirs to instrumentalists and chamber ensembles. As a teacher, Riley is passionate about music coming alive to his students, and loves to help others be inspired.

Contact

(204)-304-2070 (cell) | rileyaleciadyck@gmail.com