FROM THE CEO'S DESK

The MCI family is vast and covers many generations. While it feels like I've met so many, I realize that the majority are not yet familiar to me.

I'm Chris Harms, the CEO at MCI. I've been in my role for 2 months and 19 days as of the writing of this. A little about me, as we jog down memory lane. I've lived in Southern Manitoba all my life (I was always comfortable being a home body). I was blessed to grow up in a Christian home and I committed my life to Christ when I was 12 years old, at an apologetics conference. I was later baptized in our Evangelical Mennonite Missions Church. I'm a husband of 18 years to Audrey and the Lord has blessed us with 6 amazing children. My journey has included 9 years of employment with Access Credit Union, 7 amazing seasons with Pembina Valley Bible Camp and most recently I had the privilege of pastoring at our home church in Plum Coulee.

*Chris Harms
Chief Executive Officer*

A verse that others have frequently shared with me through life's journey has been Romans 8:28. It reads, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

At a quick glance, it sounds great and brings encouragement. It can even give a glimpse of prosperity. I've realized that it's so much more than that. It's more than a catchy verse to paint on a sign. It's become an anchor for me in life's fiercest storms. Trusting, knowing, believing that God has a way even when I can't see it in the moment. Regardless of the circumstance, God desires to use "it" for my benefit, my growth and for His glory.

Romans 11:36: For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.

EIGHT-STORY CATCH UP

Here are a few highlights from the first semester of the 2024-25 school year!

CHRISTIAN LIFE RETREAT

It was an unseasonably chilly few days at Red Rock Bible Camp, the location for MCI's annual Christian Life Retreat. The three days off campus together are an important time of community building through worship, learning, and fun, for both students and staff.

This year's speaker was Daniel Fewster, who was known to many students, having previously spoken at last year's Youth Orbit youth conference. Daniel focused his sessions on the theme "Built on the Rock."

When not in worship sessions, people were gathered around tables playing board games, on (or in!) the lake in kayaks, going for a polar bear dip, hiking, playing volleyball, and visiting together. It continues to be a meaningful MCI tradition.

MCI HOMECOMING

On October 5th, MCI campus was filled with friends and alumni of MCI as we hosted our annual fall Homecoming - this time with a few new and fun activities! The usual alumni volleyball tournament took place in the gym, while alumni and friends also met on the fairway at Oakville Golf Course for a 9-hole tournament. Meanwhile in Buhler Hall foyer, artisans and vendors displayed their talents in a Maker's Market, while the class of 2024 met for yearbook signing in the alumni lounge, and an alumni choir made music together on stage in Buhler Hall. For more photos and information about this wonderful day of fellowship, the arts and the wider MCI community, check out the article and photos on page 16-17 of this edition!

SOUP & PIE & FALL CONCERT

It was a fantastic evening on November 8th at the Soup & Pie and Fall Concert - good food, good music and good company! Having the gym filled with families, alumni and community members is always so special. This longstanding tradition continues to serve as an opportunity to gather with the wider MCI community and celebrate our vibrant music program. Alongside our choirs and vocal jazz ensembles, this year we were also treated to a string ensemble playing a lovely piece they had worked on with Rachel Regehr ('98, MCI parent). Bravo to Ms. Klassen, our choirs & instrumentalists for their beautiful music. Thank you to all who came, donated, and stayed for the evening - it was wonderful as always to have a full building and see the MCI community connecting with one another!

SPIRIT WEEK

We had a rather 'spirited' week this November at MCI as students and staff partook in Spirit Week! Spirit Week is a great way to build community, express creativity, and have fun. Themes for this year included mismatched day, twin day, thrift store day, cozy day, and generation day, pictured here. On generation day, each grade dressed like preschoolers, teens, adults & seniors, while staff dressed like they did in high school, which led to some impressive and interesting costumes! The gr. 12s dressed as they imagined they would in their senior years.

Thanks to our Campus Life Committee for organizing the week and giving out prizes, and a big thank you to all who participated!

VOLLEYBALL PROVINCIALS

The volleyball season was excellent for both our boys' and girls' teams, respectively, with both teams making qualifiers for provincials at the end of their seasons. The boys' team won their bid and took a trip to Glenboro for provincials. Under the guidance of coaches Leon Friesen and Janik Giesbrecht, the boys played hard and represented MCI well in Glenboro - so well that a Glenboro staff member reached out to MCI afterwards to say that her students were so taken with our team's respectful behaviour, kindness and enthusiasm that they started to cheer for the Blues over the home team!

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Cottonwood Community Drama took on a Christmas classic this year, putting on four fantastic performances of Dickens' famous tale. The cast size gave the opportunity for MCI students to get in on the action, with four students acting on stage in various roles - including young adult Scrooge & the Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come - and two students used their skills backstage, working on sound. The show featured impressive, inventive set design, some surprising special effects, and performances that brought both laughter and tears. It was wonderful to see MCI students collaborate with alumni and community members - bravo, all!

CHRISTMAS BANQUET

While a winter storm raged outside (one of the many December graced us with), MCI students and staff stayed warm saying "Mele Kalikimaka," or, "Merry Christmas," at a Hawaiian themed Christmas Banquet. After dressing our best, taking alllll the pictures and dining on a tasty meal, everyone headed into Buhler Hall for a thoroughly entertaining talent show. We then danced the night away in Buhler Hall foyer, before most students - and a few staff - were stormstayed for the night. Thank goodness for dorm! Thank you to the Campus Life Committee and the MCI kitchen for their work on this event.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Students worked diligently on Christmas repertoire for two months, but unfortunately a nasty winter storm cancelled our annual Christmas concert. A resourceful Ms. Klassen was quick to pivot, pulling together recording equipment and video editing in order to create a virtual showcase of the concert. This showcase is uploaded on our YouTube channel for your viewing and listening enjoyment. While a cancelled concert was disappointing - especially for our grade 12s - we were thankful for everyone's safety, and for our students and staff who were able to create something meaningful heading into the Christmas season.

Watch the concert here on our YouTube channel!

BUHLER HALL: AN INSPIRING CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Whether singing, dancing, acting or playing an instrument, MCI students find their confidence while honing their craft in Buhler Hall

Buhler Hall continues to be a gift to students enrolled at Mennonite Collegiate Institute. This space is where many of MCI's more musically enthused students find themselves throughout the school year, whether singing in choir, performing in musical, playing an instrument in an ensemble or worship band, or acting in drama. Not all the action happens on the stage - students who love the tech side of things can be found running things behind the sound board, programing lights, or building and painting sets.

Here are some of the highlights that have hit Buhler Hall Stage this school year! We hope you will come and witness these stars in action from March 6-8th in Anne of Green Gables: The Musical!

Gr. 11 student Kai Hildebrand jumped at the opportunity to perform a solo with the Winnipeg Jazz Orchestra in October. Resonate, MCI's senior vocal jazz ensemble also opened the sold-out concert, part of Manitoba's Concert series.

M: A string ensemble performs at the Fall Concert.

R: MCI's drama class performs "Grace Is Unfair" in chapel, a retelling of the parable of the vineyard workers.

MCI CLASS REUNIONS

CLASS OF 1954

MCI's Class of 1954 held its 70 year reunion on August 14th, 2024, with a luncheon at Maxime Restaurant in Winnipeg. Eight alumni and one spouse gathered from Winkler, Bethania Personal Care Home, and various parts of Winnipeg and its surroundings.

We shared a few hours of reminiscing and reinforcing friendships. Each person gave a summary of their life to date; background, activities, and accomplishments. Most became teachers, some staying in the profession for 3 to 5 decades.

At this stage of life, a number have taken to writing memoirs, genealogies, or historical treatises. They boast of children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, and proudly display pictures on their cell phones.

Standing: Margaret Schroeder Suderman, MaryAnne Ens Zacharias, Helen Reimer, Marianne Dyck Mann, Ruth Sawatzky Bock Seated: Myrna Goossen Loewen, David Penner and Gladys, Hedy Martens

Memories of MCI centered around dormitory life, choirs that tackled the Hallelujah Chorus, and especially of friendships built. The method of selecting partners for the grad banquet was mentioned. That was the only form of “dating” allowed at MCI at the time. One grad reported that Mr. Schaefer, the principal at the time, visited prospective students to entice them to enroll, even offering suggestions as to how to obtain the necessary funds.

The afternoon passed all too quickly. We decided that annual reunions rather than in five-year intervals would be appropriate as our numbers decrease. See you next year!

CLASS OF 2014

The class of 2014 had a 10 year reunion gathering at Miss Millie's Flower Farm in summer.

CLASS OF 1974

Ten months ago, I started the search to find classmates, as our last reunion had been 30 years ago and most of the addresses were now obsolete. After months of sleuthing, I began to communicate and ask fellow Stookies if they would like to reunite. There was a resounding “yes”, and so plans began.

We met on a very hot and humid Sunday afternoon at our alma mater in Gretna on August 25, 2024. Thirty-four people had responded that they would be coming – 22 stookies out of a class of 32 grads registered their intent to attend. (Only one classmate was not located.) We were honoured to have classmates fly out from BC, Alberta and Ontario to join us. As we entered the room and looked at faces that seemed unfamiliar, we tried to match memories from the past. Name tags were handed out and there were hugs and smiles and lots of chatter.

We were graciously led on a school tour by Kieran, MCI’s Director of Operations and Advancement. Stories began to pour out as we passed familiar spaces and then entered new additions that we could not have imagined 50 years ago. The dorms no longer have bunk beds nor windows that only opened a slight slit from the top section where we used to store frozen goods in the freezing days of winter. No more long rows of sinks and showers where we lined up to brush our teeth. And the class pictures hanging in the hallway brought back sweet reminders of who we used to be. Stories of “remember when” General (Mr. G. Ens) was writing the Mennonite History lesson on the blackboard with his back to us, and a few of the guys threw Bev out of the open classroom window? And those ceiling tiles that used to lead to the kitchen for midnight snack? And evidence found in an album regarding a Halloween party invitation to Room #4 at 3:30 AM?

After the tour, we gathered outdoors near the MCI sign in front of the school to take pictures. My favourite moment of the day was when we spontaneously broke into our graduation theme song “Climb Every Mountain” while we were being photographed. We may need a bit of practice, but it was a sweet sound that struck a chord in my heart.

We then moved back into the dining hall and we paid tribute to Eric Bueckert, our only classmate that has passed. This was followed by giving each stookie a couple of minutes to share a synopsis of their life since that graduation milestone. We shared laughter and tears at victories and heartaches and felt reunited once again as the Class of 1974! We had planned to have dinner in the Altona Park, but due to the heat and humidity, we stayed in the “new” dining hall. We gave thanks and shared salads, pizza and lovely desserts around tables and engaged in more conversation and memories. Faintly in the distance, 70’s music was playing, but few people even noticed, as it was much more important to catch another tidbit from one more conversation.

Before long, we were sharing hugs of farewell and the reality of knowing this was a special time in a special place in our hearts! Some of us then headed back to the campground in Altona to extend the celebration around a campfire, as we hesitated to let the evening end!

Thank you so much to MCI for allowing us the privilege to gather and remember in the halls of our past! And thank you to God for His mercy and grace...until we meet again!

The class of 1964 had a reunion in June, gathering at Eric and Joyce Peters' home near Mitchell, MB. We had a wonderful time reminiscing and eating together. 21 grads were able to gather that day, along with a number of spouses, resulting in a delightful day together!

FROM STOOKIE TO STAFF

For 135 years, Mennonite Collegiate Institute has offered young people an Anabaptist-centred education, a community to explore faith in, and a place to excel in music, academics and sport. The rich legacy of developing young peoples' God-given gifts in an Anabaptist-Christian setting continues to live on in the halls of MCI today.

For Roxanne Friesen (class of '86), an MCI alum and current MCI staff, MCI's mission is as relevant as ever. "Today's youth are searching, and I believe MCI has a unique and beautiful opportunity to lead these teens to scripture and share Christ's truth with them," she says. Friesen speaks from a place of experience – not only as a mother of four young people, but also as the school's receptionist and point person for student needs.

Friesen is one of four current staff members who were once MCI students, with over a dozen student-turned-staff at MCI in the last decade. Why do so many former students return to MCI after graduation? The answer is rooted in the love of a community whose deep traditions and meaningful relationships have left a permanent mark on them.

"I'm excited to still be a part of a school that was influential in my teens. Having Christ-centred teachers challenged me to grow in my personal faith and relationship with Jesus," Friesen shares. "While living in dorm at MCI I made some great friends, some of my closest friends to this day."

Friesen's positive experience as an MCI student led to her four children enrolling at the school, and she volunteered on the Parent Advisory Council and in the library before officially joining MCI staff in 2017. For Friesen, the students who fill the familiar hallways are the highlight for her.

"My absolute favourite thing about working here is my daily interactions with students! Whether it's celebrating last night's soccer goal or sharing their heart about a struggle or difficulty, it's such a privilege to laugh, encourage and pray with them," she says.

Friesen and the countless alumni who have "come home" to MCI connect MCI's past with its future, helping to create an environment that they thrived in and ensuring that the place that helped shape them is still shaping the next generation of young people.

"I'm just excited to be a part of this school and watch how God will use it for his glory."

Paul Peters ('05, MCI staff '18-'21) has started as Executive Director at The Community Exchange in Altona, MB. The organization is dedicated to connecting people and serving as a hub for community events and services to support living and thriving in Altona and the surrounding area. TCE offers free services such as a community meal, a community shop for toiletry items and winter clothes, as well as opportunities for connection. Paul says, "I feel honoured to be working within a space that is creating opportunities to bring people together. When the world around us is pushing people into silos, encouraging language of hate and/or discrimination, it's encouraging to be in a space that intends to do the opposite. Our hope is to foster connections that break down barriers, invite folks to gather at the table with a respect for our differences, and grace for one another as we do life together."

Key Financial Goals for 2024/25

As we continue to focus on building a sustainable future for MCI, our financial goals for the coming year include:

- Increase Enrollment: A full reset of recruitment and admissions processes.
- Engage Donors and Community: Strengthen relationships with current donors and reach new audiences
- Maintain Cost Control: Focus on operational efficiency and reducing unnecessary expenses.

Student Enrollment

Student enrollment has declined from 54 in 2023-2024 to 47 in 2024-2025, highlighting the need for thoughtful action. As we move forward, our priority is to grow MCI's student community in a way that reflects our mission and values. Rather than focusing solely on immediate solutions, we are committed to creating a strong foundation for sustainable growth through meaningful program enhancements and deeper community connections.

We are deeply grateful to the alumni, parents, churches, and community members who support MCI through prayer, volunteer efforts, and donations. Your unwavering faith in our mission sustains us and propels us forward.

MCI HOMECOMING 2024

Saturday, October 5th gave MCI alumni the opportunity to reconnect through art, song, sport and food at MCI Homecoming!

Buhler Hall foyer was transformed into a maker's market, where Stookies and friends of MCI filled tables with their work while MCI's PAC sold iced coffees, specialty lemonades, and snacks. The gym was rowdy with cheers as MCI alumni took on the current Varsity Girls' team on the volleyball court. A group gathered at Oakview Golf Course for a friendly round of golf and in Buhler Hall, an alumni choir sang songs from two former MCI musicals - The Pirates of Penzance and Fiddler on the Roof.

The vendors at the Maker's Market included the following talented alumni & friends:

- Honey Bloom Co. (Jozanna Loewen, '13)
- Lisa Joelle Art (Lisa Heide, MCI Dean '03-'07, current parent)
- Garth Lee Strings (Garth Lee, '96, current parent)
- Anchorage Fabrication (Don Engbrecht, '63)
- Correction Line Acres (Raven Nickel, '11)

Buhler Hall foyer was abuzz with activity during the alumni maker's market, while the alumni choir met on Buhler Hall stage.

- Miss Millie's Flower Farm (Vic Tubrett, '12, Kirby Friesen '14, Jodi Friesen '89)
- Prairie Crew Adventures (Carolyn Regehr, MCI Dean '09-'12)
- Crystal Gayle Photography (Crystal Zacharias, current parent)
- Marge Giesbrecht ('69)
- Esther Franz Hildbrand ('69)
- Sharon Loeppky (MCI Staff '04-'11)

Thank you so much to everyone who came to take in the market, golf, play volleyball, and connect with old friends. A huge thank you to the donor development committee for their work in pulling this event together, and to MCI staff for their support, especially in the kitchen for providing lunch!

The energy in the building was amazing, and a good reminder of how long-lasting the impact and connections are from time spent in this special place.
